

中国国际纺织机械展览会
暨ITMA亚洲展览会
ITMA ASIA + CITME 2024

ITMA ASIA + CITME 2024 Media Accreditation Guidelines

The following shall be accredited:

1. Persons in possession of identification papers from or approved by the State Administration of Press, Publication, Radio, Film and Television of the People's Republic of China.
2. Persons in possession of identification papers from recognised foreign press organisations (foreign press associations, national and state press associations etc.).
3. Radio and TV journalists, and production crews who can present an official order from a radio or TV company (with original letterhead, not copy).
4. Persons working for press departments belonging to CEMATEX, JTMA, CTMA and other textile machinery associations or textile related industry associations.
5. Journalists representing internet publications belonging to press syndicates or publishing houses, and whose online publications are established information channels for a community serviced by the exhibition in question (A copy of an online editorial written by applicant must be provided).
6. Journalists who can prove that they are working for publications which have been permitted to participate in this exhibition.
7. Photographers who can show documentary proof that they are working for the press.
8. Freelance reporters, editors and photographers who are able to submit a letter of assignment (with company letterhead) from a legitimate publisher/editor/producer stating that applicant will be covering the exhibition for the organisation.
9. Journalists from established digital and social media, and We-media focused on textile, apparel, fashion, machinery and business news.

If you don't belong to any of the above categories but would like to cover the combined show, please contact us for clarification.

The Organiser, BJITME, reserves the right to make the final decision on all applications.